INFORMATION AND INDUCTION Information and induction sessions will be held closer to the Show day for all Volunteers. You will learn the duties for your role as Volunteer and we will provide you with information.

DESCRIPTION OF VOLUNTEER DUTIES

COVID MARSHALLS – Checking in people with the QR Code as they enter the Show. Assist people who do not own a mobile phone. Performing regular sanitizing patrols. Checking crowds for social distancing.

SET UP HELPERS – Assist with setting up equipment, marquees, tables, chairs etc. and running of Events in all Sections of the Show.

HORSE RING STEWARDS – Knowledge of horses and showing would be an advantage. Duties include recording results and assisting the Judge with ribbon presentation.

CATTLE PAVILLION STEWARDS – Cattle knowledge would be an advantage. Assisting the Judge with ribbons and recording results.

ARTS & CRAFTS HALL STEWARDS – Assisting the Chief Hall Steward with entries and placement of exhibits for display. Setting up display cases – Art, Cookery, Jams, condiments, garden produce, flowers, decorated cakes etc.

PARKING MARSHALLS – Marshalls required from 5am to 9am on both days. Direct horse floats and cattle trucks in orderly rows to maximise the amount of parking spaces.

DISMANTLING HELPERS – Pulling down and packing away equipment used during the Show.

IN APPRECIATION FOR VOLUNTEERING: All Volunteers will receive one free ticket into the Show per session. A Lunch and Drink voucher will be provided.

We appreciate your help with our Show. COVID 19 has presented us with new challenges regarding rules set by NSW Health, therefore we need more people to help us this year. The Kempsey Show Committee believe we can hold a GREAT 2021 Kempsey Show, but we need your help. Any offer of assistance will be greatly appreciated.

With thanks,
